Looking Back at the Valentine's Day Dance

This event always brings out a big crowd. And that's exactly what happened this year. There was a great band (Middle Age Rockers), good food and wonderful company to enjoy. We want to thank Kelli for all her hard work in organizing this function. We also want to thank all the numerous women who helped make our dance so successful.

Laughfest 5 - It's time for the annual night of lesbian comedy, as the Lambda Players bring to the stage Lesbian Laughfest 5. It's a night of lesbian comedy, comedic music and lots of laughs. The Laughfest is for one night only - Saturday, May 4 at the 24th Street Theater. It's located at 2791 24th Street (south of Broadway between 3rd and 4th Avenues). Show time is 8 PM and the box office opens at 7 PM. Tickets are only $12 and can be purchased in advance at the Open Book, 910 21st Street. Reservations can be made by calling (916) 484-4742.

Girl Meets Girl

A surprise birthday party sets in motion an unlikely romance when the birthday girl and the stripper find they have more in common than the icing on the cake. Of course there are friends to keep things interesting, and when the new couple decide to publish a book of lesbian erotica, the results test those friendships in this comedy about love, relationships and taking chances.

This Lambda Players production runs from April 4 - May 3, 2003 Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. Wm. J. Geery Theater, 2130 L Street, Sacramento. For more information and to purchase tickets call 484-4742 or go to their website: www.lambdaplayers.org. Tickets also available at the Open Book is a tradition here in Sacramento. This year it will be held on June 14 from 10 AM to 6 PM at Southside Park. There will be entrances at 6th, 8th and T Streets. The 2002 Freedom Fair was the largest and most successful in our city's history. Lambda is working on making this one even bigger!!

SACWN NEEDS: A Graphic Artist

Do you enjoy making posters, flyers and other graphics? We need someone to create these materials for all of our larger activities.

AND

A Volunteer Coordinator

Are you a people person? Love to organize? Then we need you to help recruit and organize volunteers for our organization's activities.

If you're interested in either one of these positions, please contact SACWN - 916-451-8034 or SACWN1@aol.com

I would like to thank Sue and Beth for proofreading the SACWN newsletters. Because of your dedication, our publication is clear and precise. Thanks so much, Sharon.

SACWN NEWSLETTER POLICY

This newsletter is entirely dependent on volunteers.

In order to be included in the next newsletter, material must arrive in our mailbox or at my e-mail address by the tenth of the month (sharonju@sbcglobal.net). We encourage submissions (e.g. Letters to the Editor, news items, photos, etc.) Please type submissions and include your name and phone number for verification. Submissions by Email are especially encouraged.

FREE ADS: This section is for selling things of a personal nature, advertising for a roommate or finding a lost love. These ads are FREE to SACWN members who are advertising for personal use (no business advertising in this section).

BUSINESS ADS: Camera-ready ads are $60 per business card size. Ads must be prepaid. Ads are based on 12-month/six issues per year. For more info, please contact Sharon at 916-483-8730.

CONFIDENTIALITY: SACWN takes the following precautions to insure the privacy of its members:

1. The mailing list is never sold or lent to anyone--even other women's groups or inquiring lesbians.
2. The newsletter is always sent first class, rather than at the cheaper bulk rate.
3. Each newsletter is addressed to a specific subscriber, not to a "resident" or "household".
4. News letters are not sent to individual men.

~~Women who want to participate in the operation of SACWN are encouraged to contact any of the committee coordinators listed to the left.

Invitation to SACWN General Meeting

We have a General Meeting followed by a Steering Committee meeting on the first Thursday of every month (April 3rd, May 1st, and June 5th). We meet at the Lambda Center located at 1927 L St. Our meetings start at 7 PM. Come and find out what's going on and give your ideas and input to help our organization become stronger and continue to be a reflection of our members' interests.

Your input is important to us. If you have suggestions but can't be at the meetings, send an Email to SACWN1@aol.com with your ideas.

A LITTLE BIT OF THIS AND THAT In the Community +

Lambda Awards

The Fabulous Lambda Awards are set for Monday, April 7th at 6 PM. The event will be held at Club 21 at 1119 21st St. (between L and K St.). Guests will start out enjoying a "Cocktails and Schmoozing" hour with unobtrusive music and a buffet table to give everyone chance to get to know each other. A little complementary wine will help make everyone's evening more interesting before the 7 PM Awards Ceremony.

As the Awards Ceremony starts, attendees will move to the larger area of the club and will have an opportunity to participate in raffles and a silent auction. Fred Palmer and Gayiel Von will host the evenings event which will include incredible entertainers. Lambda Center invites everyone to join in honoring the recipients for their efforts on behalf of the community. Cost is $35.00 per person.

Friday Night Dances at the Methodist Church

These Friday Night Dances provide a fun environment for everyone. Do you enjoy dancing, want to learn to dance, like to socialize or people watch? Come out and join us for a no pressure, stress-free Friday night out. Dance is structured to the Two-Step, Waltz, Cha-Cha, Salsa and Line Dancing. Are you shy about learning to dance or need extra help in learning the dance steps? We can provide private instruction before the group lesson or connect you with someone at the dance to give a one-on-one lesson. We are a friendly mix of both couples and singles. Dances are held every Friday night at the Central United Methodist Church, 5265 H Street in the Social Hall. Group lessons start at 7:30pm. Open dance from 8:00-10:00pm. The Hall has a large hardwood floor with plenty of room to dance. No smoking or alcohol is allowed in the social hall. Children are welcome with adult supervision. A $2.00 donation is appreciated, but not required. We have bottled water or juice for $1.00. You can be notified of upcoming events and any announcements related to the dance by joining our Email list at nancin@pacbell.net. No junk mail will be sent. For more information call Cindy or Nancy at 916 987-6614.

Special Interest Groups (SIGS) Bulletin

SACWN's SIGs are small, friendly groups of women who get together monthly (or more often) to share activities of mutual interest. New members are always welcome, so we encourage you to call the contact person listed to find out what activities are being planned.

If you are interested in forming a Special Interest Group (SIG), please contact Sharon S. at 448-4324 with your ideas. You could share your favorite hobby or interest with other women.

Rainbow Campers

Join SACWN's Rainbow Campers for a weekend of camaraderie! RV, tent and car campers are welcome. To attend a Rainbow Campers' event, call the RV park at the number provided to make your own reservations. Many parks fill up months in advance so make your reservations early! Then contact the Wagon Master listed for the trip to let her know you are planning to attend so she can greet you, share information about the Saturday night potluck and let you know about any activities that may be planned for that weekend.

If you're interested in being part of the planning group to decide on our camping sites for 2003, call Joyce at (916) 987-1069.

Don't Pick Investments Based on Latest "News"

By Diova A. Gray

Some investors keep an eye on the news of the day to see how it may affect their stocks, bonds, mutual funds and other holdings. And many events do influence the performance of investments – in the short term. But if you're going to invest successfully over time, then it's important to look beyond today's headlines.

Part of the problem with making investment decisions based on news events is that the market reacts to such a wide variety of occurrences – earnings shortfalls, increases in inflation, political instability, etc. You can't predict such events, and you can't always tell how they will affect your investments.

This element of unpredictability is compounded by the fact that the market doesn't just react to news – it often overreacts. Bad news moves it down, while good news moves it up, but the level of movement is sometimes driven more by emotion than by logic. You've probably heard that "greed and fear drive the market" – and unfortunately, there may be a great deal of truth to this theory.

Instead of making investment decisions in reaction to daily headlines, you're much better off choosing investments based on more meaningful factors. If you're considering a stock or mutual fund, look at the fundamentals of the company(s). Is its management sound? Are its products competitive? Does it have a solid business philosophy?

You also need to ask yourself if a stock or mutual fund will be a good fit for your diversified portfolio. Suppose, for example, that you have found a growth stock or fund that you like. You've done your research, you understand the company(s), you're impressed by its management and you're convinced its fundamentals are strong and its outlook is bright. Sounds like a great stock or fund to buy, right? Maybe – maybe not. If your portfolio is already strongly weighted toward growth stocks/funds, then the addition of one more – even one that looks quite promising – could throw off your overall balance and even subject you to more investment risk than you're comfortable with. In short, keep the idea of "balance" in mind before you buy.

If you can concentrate on a stock's/fund's fundamentals and its effect on your overall portfolio, and if you maintain your long-term focus, then you're far less likely to be swayed into making investment moves that spring from whatever events are currently making news. Still, you won't want to ignore all the news. If you see a pattern of stories that indicate a particular industry or company is heading into a long-term downward spiral, then you may want to review your holdings. Just make sure you're not responding to what may be a one-time or short-term event. There's an old saying that "today's newspaper is tomorrow's trash." If you can keep those words in mind, you'll probably be a happier – and more productive – investor.

Diova A. Gray (Dee Dee) is an Investment Representative with Edward Jones Investments specializing in working with the individual investor and small business owner. (See advertisement on page 5.) Dee Dee will be providing us with a Financial Focus article for each publication.

Warning!! Blonde Joke to Follow Now, who said blondes are dumb?!!!

A blonde walks into a bank in New York City and asks for the loan officer. She says she's going to Europe on business for two weeks and needs to borrow $5,000. The bank officer says the bank will need some kind of security for the loan, so the blonde hands over the keys to a new Rolls Royce. The car is parked on the street in front of the bank, she has the title and everything checks out.

The bank agrees to accept the car as collateral for the loan. The bank's president and its officers all enjoy a good laugh at the blonde for using a $250,000 Rolls as collateral against a $5,000 loan.

An employee of the bank then proceeds to drive the Rolls into the bank's underground garage and parks it there.

Two weeks later, the blonde returns, repays the $5,000 and the interest, which comes to $15.41. The loan officer says, "Miss, we are very happy to have had your business, and this transaction has worked out very nicely, but we are a little puzzled. While you were away, we checked you out and found that you are a multimillionaire. What puzzles us is, why would you bother to borrow $5,000?"

The blonde replies "Where else in New York City can I park my car for two weeks for only $15.41 and expect it to be there when I return?"

Identification Theft: What It Is and What To Do About It

This information was taken off the U.S. government's central website for information about identity theft.
<http://www.consumer.gov/idtheft>

If your wallet or purse is lost or stolen, the Federal Trade Commission suggests that you:

- * File a report with the police immediately. Get a copy in case your bank, credit card company or insurance company needs proof of the crime.
- * Cancel each credit and charge card. Get new cards with new account numbers. Call the fraud departments of the major credit reporting agencies: Equifax (800) 525-6285; Experian (888) 397-3742; TransUnion (800) 680-7289. Ask them to put a "fraud alert" on your account and add a "victim's statement" to your file requesting that creditors contact you before opening new accounts in your name.
- * Ask the credit bureaus for copies of your credit reports. Review your reports carefully to make sure no additional fraudulent accounts have been opened in your name or unauthorized changes made to your existing accounts. In a few months, order new copies of your reports to verify your corrections and changes, and to make sure no new fraudulent activity has occurred.
- * Report the loss to your bank if your wallet or purse contained bank account information, including account numbers, ATM cards or checks. Cancel checking and savings accounts and open new ones. Stop payments on outstanding checks.
- * Get a new ATM card, account number and Personal Identification Number (PIN) or password.
- * Report your missing driver's license to the Department of Motor Vehicles. If your state uses your Social Security number as your driver's license number, ask to substitute another number.
- * Change the locks on your home and car if your keys were taken. Don't give an identity thief access to even more personal property and information.

If you've been a victim of identity theft, file a complaint with the FTC by contacting the FTC's Identity Theft Hotline: toll-free 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338); TDD: 202-326-2502; by mail: Identity Theft Clearinghouse, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580; or online: www.consumer.gov/idtheft. Ask for a copy of ID Theft: When Bad Things Happen to Your Good Name, a free comprehensive consumer guide to help you guard against and recover from identity theft.

Joyful Loving Presentation

Tuesday, May 6, from 7:30 pm to 9 pm at the Lambda Center

SACWN in collaboration with Partners, an organization dedicated to fostering long term lesbian and gay relationships, brings you "Joyful Loving", a presentation and discussion about relationships by Kate MacKenzie LCSW, on Tuesday evening, May 6, from 7:30 pm to 9 pm at the Lambda Center, 1927 L Street, Sacramento.

Kate will talk about what makes a relationship powerful, skills needed to deepen a relationship, and the behaviors and traps that tear down partnerships. Good partnerships are made, not born. They require willingness, commitment and the courage to take responsibility for one's self. Our relationships can be joyful, fun, and passionate. Creating and sustaining this kind of relationship takes vision, intention, and a supportive community.

Kate MacKenzie, a native of Sacramento with a 13-year, full time psychotherapy practice in Midtown, specializes in working with women's issues, lesbian and gay concerns, and relationships. Kate began in the 70's by serving as President of the Board of the Sacramento Women's Center as well as founding the Sacramento Rape Crisis Center and serving as its Executive Director. She was President of the Board of the Sacramento Child Sexual Abuse Treatment Program and in 1983 became the first Executive Director for the Sacramento AIDS Foundation. Kate is committed to doing healing work, especially in the area of permanent partnership. She is proud to be a loving mother, grandmother, and a darned good partner.

Admission: $5.00 to cover event expenses. Space is limited, so reservations are required, contact Nancy at (916) 452-6007.
